PRESS RELEASE

Conviction in Murder Case: Accused Sentenced to Life Imprisonment Without Parole

The Office of the Superintendent of Police, West Khasi Hills District, Nongstoiñ, has informed that the Hon'ble District and Sessions Judge, West Khasi Hills District, Nongstoiñ, on 18th November 2026, convicted Shri Biangkupar Nongsiej in connection with a murder case and sentenced him to undergo imprisonment for the remainder of his natural life without parole, along with a fine of ₹1,00,000 (Rupees One Lakh).

The case originated from an FIR received on 2nd February 2024, wherein the complainant reported that his daughter had been murdered by her husband, Shri Biangkupar Nongsiej, at around 6:30 PM. The deceased was at an advanced stage of pregnancy at the time of the incident.

Following the complaint, Nongstoiñ Police Station registered a case vide Nongstoiñ P.S. Case No. 06(2)2024 under Section 302 of the Indian Penal Code (IPC), and the investigation was entrusted to WPSI Batlariti Dkhar.

Upon completion of the investigation and examination of the evidence, the Investigating Officer submitted a charge sheet against the accused under Section 302 IPC.

After appreciating the evidence presented during the trial, the Hon'ble Court found the accused guilty of the offence and awarded the above sentence.

The conviction marks the conclusion of the legal proceedings in the case, following the investigation conducted by Nongstoiñ Police. (DPRO, NONGSTOIÑ)
