World Homoeopathy Day observed

Shillong, 10th April, 2019 : World Homoeopathy Day was observed here today which was attended by Additional Chief Secretary and Chairman, Meghalaya State AYUSH Society, P W Ingty as the Chief Guest and Secretary, Health & Family Welfare cum Director, AYUSH as the Guest of Honor.

Addressing the gathering which also comprised of AYUSH graduating doctors, the Chief Guest P W Ingty said that AYUSH is a growing department that renders valuable services in the Health Sector. He urged the graduating doctors not to have an attitude of alternative practise to their profession and to give their best services in spite of the challenges they might face while practicing.

Earlier, Guest of Honor, Pravin Bakshi informed that there has been a considerable rise in the outreach and practise of AYUSH in the State. He said that AYUSH has an important role in the Health department and added that Homoeopathy is growing multi dimensionally all over the world as Homoeopathy attunes itself to the natural health cycle of the patient and cures with a long lasting impact. He expressed hope that the State will have a full fledged AYUSH directorate in the future.

The Chief Guest and Guest of Honor also distributed certificates to the graduating doctors and also felicitated various Homoeopathic physicians of the State.
