

Rah-Veer (Good Samaritan Scheme)

1. Rah Veer is a scheme that provides a Cash Award to the Good Samaritan who save life of victims involved in serious road accident.
2. The Award recognizes individuals who provide immediate assistance by rushing the victims to Hospitals or Trauma Care Centre.
3. The main objective of the scheme is to motivate the general public through awards and certificates to help the road accident victims in emergency situation.
4. Serious Road Accident defined as:
  - i) Major surgery involved
  - ii) Minimum 3 (three) days of hospitalization
  - iii) Brain injuries
  - iv) Spinal Cord injuries.
  - v) Death of the victim during treatment.
5. The amount is ₹ 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty five thousand) only per incident. If one Rah-Veer saves life of one or more victims of a single serious accident involving a Motor Vehicle the amount will be ₹ 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty five thousand) only.
If more than one Rah Veer save life of one victim of a serious accident, ₹25,000/- (Rupees Twenty five thousand) only will be divided equally among them.
If more than one Rah-Veer saves life of more than one victims of serious road accident, the amount of award will be ₹ 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty five thousand) only per victim.
6. An individual Rah-Veer can be awarded maximum 5 times in a year.

Deputy Commissioner.
West Garo Hills, Tura.