- Publication of Final Electoral Roll: 07.10.2026

2. Reference to the 2005 Electoral Roll

It was informed that the Electoral Roll of the year 2005, available on the official website of the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer, Meghalaya and the website of East Khasi Hills District shall serve as the "Legacy Roll" for reference during the Special Intensive Revision process, in accordance with the instructions issued by the Election Commission of India.

3. Role of Electoral Registration Officers

It was highlighted that the designated Electoral Registration Officers (EROs) shall be responsible for the overall conduct, supervision, scrutiny, verification and implementation of the Special

Intensive Revision exercise within their respective Assembly Constituencies in accordance with the provisions of the electoral laws and directions of the Commission.

4. House-to-House Visit by Booth Level Officers

It was informed that Booth Level Officers (BLOs) shall undertake house-to-house visit of electors within their respective polling areas on the scheduled dates.

5. Role of Political Parties and Booth Level Agents

Political parties were requested to nominate and appoint Booth Level Agents (BLAs) for every polling station to ensure active participation, timely verification and transparency during every stage of the revision exercise.

6. Appeal to the traditional Heads

The Office of the Deputy Commissioner will write to all the Dorbar Shnongs in the district to apprise of the Special Intensive Revision exercise and to solicit the support and cooperation of the Dorbars in disseminating information to the Electorate on the house visits by the Booth Level Officers and the subsequent hearings to be conducted by the Electoral Registration Officers

7. Public Awareness and Cooperation

The importance of widespread public awareness, timely verification and active cooperation of all stakeholders was emphasised to ensure that the electoral rolls remain accurate, inclusive and free from discrepancies.

The representatives of the political parties were also given an opportunity to seek clarifications on various procedural and operational aspects of the exercise, which were duly explained during the meeting.

The District Election Officer, East Khasi Hills District, appealed to all political parties, electors and stakeholders to extend full cooperation to the election machinery and actively participate in the Special Intensive Revision, 2026, so as to ensure successful completion of the exercise in a transparent, participative and time-bound manner.

Further updates, schedules and notifications relating to the exercise shall be disseminated through the office of the Chief Electoral Officer, Meghalaya, the Office of the District Election Officer, East Khasi Hills District, and through the Electoral Registration Officers by means of official communication.

District Election Officer,
East Khasi Hills District
