PRESS NOTE

ECI Announces Voter-Friendly Measures under SIR 2026, introduces Doorstep Facilitation for Electors; Final Publication in Meghalaya Extended to 26th October and Over 93% of Notice Cases Completed

NO.SWK/EL-106/SIR/2025/147: The Election Commission of India (ECI) has announced important voter-friendly measures to facilitate electors during the ongoing Special Intensive Revision (SIR), 2026.

As per ECI Press Note No. ECI/PN/120/2026 dated 26thSeptember, 2026, the following measures will apply:

- BLOs to visit the homes of electors who have been issued notices for being unmapped or having logical discrepancies, collect the required documents and upload them on ECINet for decision by the concerned Electoral Registration Officer (ERO).
- Electoral Registration Officer is conducting a hearing on a priority basis.
- The elector is authorised to send any adult member of the family to attend on his/her behalf.
- District Election Officer has established Help Desks and Special Camps to facilitate electors.

The District Election Officer, South West Khasi Hills District has directed all EROs, AEROs and BLOs to ensure effective implementation of these facilitation measures and provide every concerned elector adequate opportunity during the revision process.

Final Publication Extended to 26th October, 2026

Further, as per ECI Press Note No. ECI/PN/121/2026 dated 30thSeptember, 2026, the Commission has extended the date for Final Publication of the Electoral Roll in Meghalaya to 26thOctober, 2026.

Status of SIR as on the 1st October, 2026

The Special Intensive Revision (SIR), 2026 in South West Khasi Hills District has made substantial progress, with 28,051 cases completed out of 28,488 notices generated, representing 98% as on 1st October, 2026.

Out of 77,124 electors in the Draft Electoral Roll, notices were generated for 28,488 electors, comprising 11,107 No Mapping cases and 17,381 cases involving mapping discrepancies. So far, 74 electors have been found ineligible for the Final Electoral Roll after the prescribed process, while 30,915 electors have been parked for Final Publication.

During the revision process, 203 Forms have also been received and digitised, comprising 111 Form 6, 18 Form 7, 58 Form 8 for shifting and 16 Form 8 for correction. Political parties have appointed 36 Booth Level Agents (BLAs) in the District to participate in the revision process.

Electors who have received notices are requested to cooperate with their BLOs and furnish the required documents when contacted. All electors are also advised to check and confirm their names in the Final Electoral Roll after its publication.
