PRESS RELEASE

Award of President of India's Police Colour to Meghalaya Police

Meghalaya Police has been awarded the prestigious President of India's Police Colour, as conveyed by the Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India in recognition of its exemplary service, unwavering professionalism, and steadfast commitment. The President's Colour symbolizes national recognition and acknowledges the sustained dedication, courage, and integrity demonstrated by the officers and personnel of Meghalaya Police in the discharge of their duties.

Meghalaya Police has played a pivotal role in maintaining peace and public order, effectively combating crime, and addressing challenges related to militancy with resilience and professionalism. The force has made significant strides in promoting gender inclusion within its ranks and has been the recipient of numerous gallantry, meritorious, and distinguished service medals, reflecting individual and collective excellence. Additionally, Meghalaya Police has demonstrated commendable capability in disaster management, including prompt search and rescue operations during natural calamities, thereby safeguarding lives and property. In keeping with evolving security needs, Meghalaya Police has strengthened its institutional capabilities through the establishment of specialized units such as the Cyber Crime branch and Anti- Terror Squad.

The conferment of the President's Police Colour is a moment of great pride and honour not only for Meghalaya Police but also for the people of the State. It acknowledges the collective efforts and sacrifices of all ranks, both serving and retired, who have contributed to building a disciplined, efficient, and people-friendly police force. The Director General of Police, Meghalaya has expressed sincere gratitude to the Government for their continued support, guidance and encouragement. She has further expressed appreciation to the people of Meghalaya for their trust, cooperation and partnership with the police, which remain vital in maintaining peace and security in the state.

On this occasion, the Director General of Police, Meghalaya, has extended heartfelt congratulations to all officers and personnel for their exemplary service and dedication. She has also emphasized that this honour brings with it an added responsibility to uphold the highest standards of professionalism, integrity, and public service.

Meghalaya Police remains committed to further strengthening its capabilities, enhancing public trust, and serving the citizens with fairness, transparency, and accountability.
