This Easter Sunday, citizens of Northeast and the rest of the country joined hands with Meghalaya to unitedly pray and seek God's blessings and the much needed strength in times like these when the world is faced with a grave challenge -- COVID 19 crisis.

The "Meghalaya Prays" initiative of Chief Minister Conrad K Sangma, which was streamed and broadcasted live in various channels and social media platforms today at 6 pm, gained momentum with citizens across the region solemnly taking part in the hymns -- "Amazing Grace" and "How Great thou art" with candles in their hands.
Easter Sunday commemorates Jesus Christ's resurrection from death; The victory over evil with the resurrection of Jesus Christ sparks hope and light into the world especially in troubled times such as these.

"This Easter Sunday, the prayer and hymn that we had, I hope and believe that the strength of every person will go up. I am happy that the prayer has gone well," CM Conrad Sangma said.
