

PRESS RELEASE

Press Release No. 10/24

DCDP Mela held at Umiam

Shillong, January 17, 2024: A Dak Community Development Program (DCDP) Mela which is specially designed for making extensive awareness about various postal products and schemes offered by the Department of Posts to the local public, was held on 13.1.2024 at Umiam village in the Umiam Sub Post Office premises, in which the village chiefs of seven surrounding villages participated as Guests of Honour.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Simon Peter Dohling, Development Officer (PLI/RPLI), Meghalaya Postal Division, explained the benefits of the Postal Life Insurance & Rural Postal Life Insurance products and Mr. Riten Kma, Public Relation Inspector, Shillong GPO explained the benefits of various Postal Savings Schemes, Dak-Ghar Niryat Kendra, Dak Seva Kendra, Speed Post and Parcel Post Services & Indian Post Payments Bank services. Mr. Prasanta Kumar Das, Senior Postmaster, Shillong GPO and Mr. Yash Raj Singh, Inspector of Posts, Ri Bhoi Sub Division made ardent appeal to the people of the area to avail the benefits of various postal products and schemes, and emphasized that all the services offered by the Department of Posts, including the Indian Post Payments Bank (IPPB), are purely people-centric and fully service-oriented.

Meghalaya Postal Division has a detailed plan for organizing such melas in every part of the State to connect the people of the state with the Department of Posts so that the products and services offered by the Department of Posts could reach the doorstep of every aspiring individual in the State.