Education Minister Lahkmen Rymbui Attends Golden Jubilee Closing Ceremony of Dangar Dombah Government LP School

Dangar, Oct 12: Dangar Dombah Government Lower Primary School marked the closing ceremony of its Golden Jubilee celebrations, commemorating 50 years of its contribution to education and the development of young learners.

Education Minister Lahkmen Rymbui attended the ceremony and released the school's Golden Jubilee souvenir, documenting its history, achievements and journey over the past five decades.

The programme was attended by H.M. Shangpliang, Adviser to the Government of Meghalaya through the Education Department; Rev. R.M. Thongni, Principal of Riwar Secondary School, Dangar; Fr. James Mawa, Principal of St. Peter's Higher Secondary School, Dangar; the school's head teacher; the headman of Dangar; representatives of neighbouring localities; and other stakeholders, parents, teachers and students.

Former teachers shared their memories and reflected on the institution's growth and journey over the past five decades. The school currently has an enrolment of 290 students and continues to provide foundational education to children in the area.

Addressing the gathering, Lahkmen Rymbui highlighted the state government's efforts to strengthen the education sector through improved school infrastructure, teacher support and better learning opportunities for students. He reiterated the government's commitment to ensuring quality education and enabling children to develop their potential.

The minister appreciated the teachers for their dedication to educating and nurturing the students. He also acknowledged the contribution of the School Management Committee and thanked parents for placing their trust in the institution.

Encouraging the students to make the most of the opportunities available to them, Rymbui highlighted various government initiatives related to skill development, talent recognition and personal growth. He emphasised that education should extend beyond classroom learning and equip young people with the knowledge, skills and confidence to face future challenges and contribute meaningfully to society.

Shangpliang also addressed the gathering, highlighting the school's needs and priorities and stressing the importance of continued cooperation among the government, school authorities, parents and the wider community. He urged all stakeholders to support the institution as it continues its educational journey.

Students presented cultural performances as part of the celebration, adding to the spirit of the Golden Jubilee occasion.

The ceremony marked a milestone in the history of Dangar Dombah Government LP School, celebrating its contributions over the past 50 years and reaffirming the collective commitment of the government, teachers, parents and community to strengthening education and creating better opportunities for future generations.
