Cooperative Week Celebration Held at Ampati

Ampati, June 29, 2026: The Office of the Assistant Registrar of Cooperative Societies, West Garo Hills, on Monday organised the inaugural programme of the Cooperative Week Celebration 2026 at the BADO MFC Hall, Ampati, as part of the 5th Foundation Day of the Ministry of Cooperation, Government of India. The celebration was held under the theme, "Sahkar Se Samridhi – A National Campaign through People's Participation."

Deputy Commissioner of South West Garo Hills, Kum. Anendya Raajsshre, IAS, attended the programme as the Chief Guest and highlighted the important role of cooperatives in promoting inclusive growth, self-reliance and sustainable rural livelihoods. She encouraged cooperative societies to work collectively for the socio-economic development of the district.

The programme began with the felicitation of the Chief Guest and other dignitaries, followed by a welcome address and the administration of the Cooperative Pledge. Shri Salbison D. Sangma of Kerupara IVCS Ltd. shared his experiences on the functioning and benefits of the cooperative movement.

A Financial Literacy Camp was later conducted by MCAB Ltd., Garobadha Branch, to create awareness on financial planning and banking services. The Cooperative Department also organised an awareness-cum-mobilisation session on the formation of Multi-Purpose Agricultural Cooperative Societies (MPACS), Multipurpose Fisheries Cooperative Societies (MFCS) and Multipurpose Dairy Cooperative Societies (MDCS), aimed at strengthening the cooperative network in the district.

Officials of the Cooperative Department, representatives of cooperative societies and other stakeholders attended the programme.
