Absconding Accused Arrested from East Siang District, Arunachal Pradesh

Resubelpara, November 25, 2026: The North Garo Hills District Police has successfully apprehended an absconding accused from East Siang District of Arunachal Pradesh in connection with a case registered under the Women Police Station, North Garo Hills.

The accused, identified as Shri Prenibath K. Marak, son of Shri Sabithson Marak and a resident of Haluapara, Resubelpara, was wanted in connection with Women P.S. North Garo Hills FIR No. 19/2026, registered under Sections 63(a), 64(2)(f) and 65(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), read with Sections 5(m) (n) and 6(1) of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act.

The accused had been absconding for nearly two months following the commission of the alleged offence and had been evading arrest and investigation by concealing himself in East Siang District of Arunachal Pradesh.

Acting on sustained intelligence gathering, continuous tracking and an intensive search operation, the North Garo Hills District Police successfully traced and apprehended the accused in East Siang District, Arunachal Pradesh, with the valuable assistance and cooperation of the Arunachal Pradesh Police.

Following his arrest, the accused was produced before the Hon'ble Court for further necessary legal proceedings in connection with the case.

The North Garo Hills District Police has reiterated its firm commitment to ensuring justice, particularly in cases involving crimes against women and children. The District Police has also placed on record its appreciation for the cooperation and support extended by the Arunachal Pradesh Police in the successful apprehension of the accused.
